

The North Adams Transcript.

VOLUME 2.

THE NORTH ADAMS DAILY TRANSCRIPT, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 25, 1896.

NUMBER 28

By Telegraph
5.00 O'CLOCK.

IN CUBA.

A Venezuelan Artist Detained
For Taking Photographs
Of Defenses.

CORRESPONDENT EXPELLED.

JOSE GONZALEZ AND SEVERAL OTHER IMPORTANT LEAD-ERS OF THE INSUR-
GENTS ARE REPORTED
TO HAVE SURREN-DERED.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

HAVANA, June 25.—A man named Jimenez said to be a Venezuelan and a companion of Thomas R. Dowley the American artist, who was recently arrested and subsequently released, has been detained on the charge of taking photographs of the defenses composing the military line across the province of Pinar Del Rio.

W. W. Gay, the correspondent of The New York World, was notified last night that he had been expelled from the island and must leave Cuba by the first steamer. Gay will leave Saturday.

A dispatch from Guanajay announces the surrender of Jose Gonzalez, an important insurgent leader, and Jorge Tercero and the Fairnes, belonging to important families. At several points twenty insurgents have surrendered to the authorities.

CONGRATULATIONS.

Graceful Compliment from a Prominent Massachusetts Democrat

To McKinley.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

CANTON, O., June 25.—McKinley's congratulations today included one from Theodore Roosevelt of New York from his summer home at Oyster Bay, as follows:

"My Dear Mr. President to be. As a rule I do not like to try prophecy but I think it is safe to say New York will give you the largest majority by far than she has ever given a Presidential candidate."

Ex-Congressman John E. Russell of Massachusetts in congratulating McKinley says: "No man among your admiring and loving supporters more cordially and disinterestedly congratulates you and the country than I do. I am your sincere political opponent but no less your cordial and sincere friend."

THE CREWS AT HENLEY.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

HENLEY ON THAMES, June 25.—The Trinity Hall crew at practice this morning pulled a stroke of 33 for the first minute and then dropped to 23. The Yale men were out at eleven o'clock and went to Temple Island and back on short stretches. "Doh" coached them on quick starts. The stroke has been raised to 34. The crew are feeling in perfect condition.

MILLS TO SHUT DOWN.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

LAWRENCE, June 25.—The Pacific mills, 150,000 spindles, will shut down for two weeks, beginning July 6. This voluntary action on the part of the corporation is regarded as convincing proof that curtailment in production is necessary.

POUGHKEEPSIE BOAT RACES.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 25.—All the varsity crews went out for practice this morning. The water is smooth and the sky cloudy. The Pennsylvanians say they hope to make a good showing tomorrow. There is but little betting.

THREATEN TO BOLT.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 25.—The silver men in the Democratic delegation announced they will bolt if a unit rule is enforced when voting on the platform at Chicago.

THE EARTHQUAKE IN JAPAN.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

YOKOHAMA, June 25.—It is now stated that twenty-seven thousand persons were drowned and eight thousand injured by the recent tidal wave and earthquake.

FOR FREE COINAGE.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

MACON, Ga., June 25.—At the Democratic state convention today Governor Atkinson and all the present state officers were renominated. The platform adopted declares for the free, unlimited and independent coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

SPANISH RELATIONS.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

MADRID, Spain, June 25.—The senate by a vote of 43 to 44 has rejected the motion made by Senator Comas Monday last during the discussion of the alliance incident, providing for an amendment to the royal address demanding that the protocol of 1877 with the United States be renounced in view of the inequality in the rights of Spanish and American citizens under present conditions.

TROOPS IN VENEZUELA.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

LONDON, June 25.—The St. James Gazette this afternoon says that in sending a military force to protect British surveying and road making parties near Acarabisco, the government of British Guiana has done what the situation plainly demanded, adding that the policy of non resistance pursued has not been successful in settling our disputes with Venezuela. No other great power would for a moment have stood a series of attacks like those of the Venezuelan soldiers on British officials.

LARGE POWDER ORDERS.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

WILMINGTON, Del., June 25.—The DuPont powder Co. has received large orders for gun powder from the government calling for shipment within a week. The works are being operated night and day to fill the orders which have aroused much speculation here.

STANLEY DANGEROUSLY ILL.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

LONDON, June 25.—The Globe Stanley, the well known explorer is seriously ill.

A Texan Cyclone.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

DALLAS, Texas, June 25.—A cyclone has swept the country from Wills Point to Waco. Heavy damage has been done to all kinds of property and it is feared with loss of life.

CORBETT-SHARKEY FIGHT.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Sporting men think Corbett lost last night's fight with Sharkey which was declared a draw. Many say had the fight continued Sharkey would have won. Corbett's friends ridicule this but admit that Sharkey is a good man.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The Evening Post prints a sensational story that Henry Villard is to buy the Northern Pacific and B. & O. and thus have a through route from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

FINANCIAL.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

New York Market.

(Closing Quotations, 2 p.m.)

Received from the office of A. M. Ticker, Room 2, Blackinton block. Executes orders for stocks and bonds, deals upon New York Stock Exchange for cash, or on margin. Private telephone 47-48.

American Cotton Oil..... 131-2

Ashland..... 14

B & O. 65-1/2

Carroll Southern..... 13-3/4

Central of New Jersey..... 167-3/8

Chesapeake & Ohio..... 15-1/2

Cleveland & Northwestern..... 46

C. B. & Q. 12-3/8

Chicago Gas..... 66-1/2

Chicago, St. P. M. & O. 69-1/2

C. C. & St. L. 125

Col. & Hud. 127-3/4

D. & L. W. 15

Electric..... 31

Ind. & C. 102-1/2

Lake Erie..... 50

L. & N. 50

Long Island Elevated..... 102-1/2

M. & T. C. 24-3/5

M. & T. Pref. 23

Metropolitan Lead..... 43-1/2

N. Y. Central..... 43-1/2

Out & West. 14

N. Y. S. & W. 5-3/8

No. Pacific p. 14

Pacific Mail..... 24

Phil. & Reading..... 13-1/2

Pullman..... 27-7/8

Southern Railway p. 23

Standard Oil..... 125

State Lead..... 23

Tex. & Pac. 43-1/2

Tex. & S. W. 43-1/2

Tex

The Transcript.

DAILY—From every attention except Sunday at five o'clock.
WEEKLY—Saturdays, this day morning.

TO THE
TRANSCRIPT PUBLISHING COMPANY.

11 Main Street.

North Adams, Mass.

For services for our agents we in the course of the day, and at other times make a present of our services to those who are in the business.

4. Inde-

SPECIAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

One of being a member of the ASSOCIATED PRESS THE TRANSCRIPT has the exclusive facilities for this locality of the great American and foreign news chapters.

The first telegraphic dispatches from all parts of the world are received by THE

TRANSCRIPT UP TO THE HOUR OF GOING

June
Weddings
And Commencement Gifts.

Sterling Silver Ware.
Silver Novelties.
Cut Glass Ware.
Watches, Jewelry, and Diamonds.

The largest Stock of the finest quality of goods at the Lowest Prices in the City. The Old and Reliable Wilson Block Jeweler.

L. M. BARNES,
Agent for the
HUMMER and BARNES'
Bicycles.

N. H. Arnold,

Successor to

T. W. Richmond & Co.

is selling

D. & H.
All Rail
Coal

At The Same Old
Stand.

31 State Street.

The City
CASH GROCERY

Just Received a new lot of FLOUR of the first quality at the usual LOW PRICE.
Order at once so it can be delivered from the car. Be sure and try a ball of my 20c butter.

F. E. BENSON,
Cor. Main and Marshall Sts.

F. G. FOUNTAIN,

THE NEW & POCKET KODAK.

THE NEW & BULL'S EYE.

Are the favorites and leaders in the race. Popular and pleasant Amateur Photography. No one can afford to do without Good Pictures when they can be obtained with so little trouble and expense.

F. G. FOUNTAIN,
SOCIETY STATIONERY AND

PHOTOGRAPHIC OUTFITS

Bank Street, North Adams, Mass.

Good Health.

Perfect health is desirable above all things. Nothing so much tends to good health as having the liver and digestive organs in perfect condition. This is obtained by taking regularly a few teaspoonsfuls of Darby's Celery Salts.

For sale by all Druggists. Price, 50c. a bottle.
DARBY'S CELERY SALTS CO., NEW YORK CITY.

Hawkeye Camera

For Sale

Extra Fine Lens

$7.50 cash, Cost $16.00.

Inquire at this office.

Chairs Caned.

Chairs of all kinds reseated and frames repaired. Furniture repaired, stained and polished. Baskets of all sizes made to order, old baskets repaired at low prices. No charge for transportation of goods. Notify by postal.

John W. Davis, Jones Hill
North Adams, Mass.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in Our Neighbor Towns.

AT ADAMS TODAY.

John L. Barker's Schemes to Pay for the Memorial Bell—Rev.
Father Moran Celebrates the Funeral Services of his Cousin at West Newton—
Prof. Lee the Hypnotist is to be Here Next Week—Items of Interest About Local People and Affairs.

About the Barker Bell.

The Episcopal church was very prettily decorated with ferns and daisies this afternoon, when Clive Newcome Sherwood of Chicago and Miss Florence Grinnell Cole were united in marriage. The bride's dress was of white satin and pink lace. She wore a long veil and a brooch of seventy-five pearls surrounding a diamond, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Anna Belle Cole, sister of the bride, was dressed in white organdy with white satin collar. The bridesmaids, Misses Elizabeth King Adams of Adams, Blanche Edwards of Pittsfield, Clara Burtt Parsons, and Mary Louise Snedley, both of Williamstown, wore green organdy with white satin collars and carried bouquets of daisies. Herbert L. Pratt, '97, of Hingham Mass., Carlton G. Smith, '96, of Williamstown, Charles G. Smith, '94, of Albany and Rev. Carol Perry, '90, of New York were ushers.

The groom and best man, Perry Snedley of Williamstown, awaited the bride at the altar. Rev. Theodore Sedgwick performed the ceremony at 5 o'clock, using the entire Episcopal service. Miss Rosalie Smith, organist of the North Reformed church of West Troy, N. Y., presided at the organ, playing "The Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin, as the bridal party entered the church, and Mendelssohn's wedding march after the ceremony.

Miss Cole is a popular young lady and the church was crowded with relatives and friends, this being the social event of the season and the first wedding in the new church.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henrietta G. Cole, at the Williams college infirmary. The house was tastefully decorated with daisies, ferns and ground pines, the piazza being enclosed by evergreen bushes.

The presents were of china, cut-glass, silver and lace, and made an elegant display. The wedding cake boxes of the daisy pattern were arranged in an attractive manner in the large hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood will be at home at 422 Greenwood boulevard, Evanston, Ill., after August 1.

Miss Mary C. Kling is at home from Westford normal school.

A large number of the men employed on the Zylonite job were laid off Wednesday.

The high school juniors have been very busy all day decorating the opera house for the commencement exercises this evening.

H. Burr Crandall of Boston was in town Wednesday.

All the public schools will be closed Friday for nine weeks.

The party of young people which went to Savoy Wednesday evening had an enjoyable time and returned about 2:30 o'clock this morning.

James McGrath of the college of Nicolliette, Canada, is at home for the summer.

The police station committee is anxiously awaiting the plans for the new building. Architect Rathbone of Pittsfield is preparing them and as soon as they are submitted to the committee bids will be called for advertisement.

There were no cases in district court Wednesday or today.

Rev. Father M. J. Coyne is attending commencement at Boston college, where his brother is a student.

W. B. Green returned Wednesday from a business trip to Albany.

Fred Simmons has gone to the White Mountains to spend his vacation.

Rev. Fr. Trigano is out of town on business.

Fred Graham of Albany was in town Wednesday.

The Frost meat market on Park street has been bought of Mrs. A. L. Frost by W. L. A. Cassavant of North Adams.

James Raedy is moving into the tenement over Jenks & Mooney's store.

Harris M. Richmond is in Cambridge taking the examination for entrance to Harvard college.

Miss Grace Bennett, who formerly lived here, is a guest of Miss Jennie Gurney.

A large mirror and dressing set has been received by the Renfrew Caledonian club from its lady friends.

Mrs. Rena and Archie Bowen of Bridgeport Normal school are at home for the summer vacation.

Mrs. A. Alexander of Greenfield is the guest of her son, E. R. Alexander, manager of the Bay State Clothing house.

Miss Cora E. Lombard will take her place this fall as first assistant teacher in the high school and Miss Sarah T. Allen who supplied her will go to the Fitchburg high school.

W. C. Phillips, who resides next door to the Methodist church, does good work as a painter and paper hanger. The number of his post office box is 82.

CHESHIRE.

E. D. Noble of Westfield is stopping at M. L. Curtis' Church street.

Rev. L. P. Houtaling of Hinsdale is the guest of Rev. E. N. Harding.

A birthday party gathering was held at Mrs. J. P. Campbell's Tuesday, her associates surprising her.

A dozen members of Upton Lodge of Masons were present at the Great Barrington Masonic centennial exercises Wednesday.

Arthur Morris closes his lawbers with Elmer E. Wheeler on Saturday next and Fred Howe will take his place.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grimes died Saturday June 20 and was buried Monday.

Mrs. Eliza Millington is very low with inflammation of the brain.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alvin Canedy of Brattleboro passed through the town on their way to West Dover last Sunday making a short call on his brother Will Canedy.

Henry Thomas is reported to have been trespassing by fishing in the waters owned by the Forest and Stream club and will probably have to pay the penalty. The officials have taken the matter in hand.

Lewis Mansfield has a pear tree having fair sized pears on the twigs and blossoms on the same.

L. D. Warner and wife of Wagnatuck, Conn., are stopping at Levi J. Fisk's.

William B. McClellan with his wife and her sister have returned to Wilmington from the south. His many friends here welcome him back. He has again taken town from his winter sojourn in California with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Sherwood-Cole.

The Episcopal church was very prettily decorated with ferns and daisies this afternoon, when Clive Newcome Sherwood of Chicago and Miss Florence Grinnell Cole were united in marriage.

The bride's dress was of white satin and pink lace. She wore a long veil and a brooch of seventy-five pearls surrounding a diamond, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of bride roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Anna Belle Cole, sister of the bride, was dressed in white organdy with white satin collar.

The bridesmaids, Misses Elizabeth King Adams of Adams, Blanche Edwards of Pittsfield, Clara Burtt Parsons, and Mary Louise Snedley, both of Williamstown, wore green organdy with white satin collars and carried bouquets of daisies.

Herbert L. Pratt, '97, of Hingham Mass., Carlton G. Smith, '96, of Williamstown, Charles G. Smith, '94, of Albany and Rev. Carol Perry, '90, of New York were ushers.

The groom and best man, Perry Snedley of Williamstown, awaited the bride at the altar.

Rev. Theodore Sedgwick performed the ceremony at 5 o'clock, using the entire Episcopal service.

Miss Rosalie Smith, organist of the North Reformed church of West Troy, N. Y., presided at the organ, playing "The Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin, as the bridal party entered the church, and Mendelssohn's wedding march after the ceremony.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henrietta G. Cole, at the Williams college infirmary.

The house was tastefully decorated with daisies, ferns and ground pines, the piazza being enclosed by evergreen bushes.

The presents were of china, cut-glass, silver and lace, and made an elegant display.

The wedding cake boxes of the daisy pattern were arranged in an attractive manner in the large hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood will be at home at 422 Greenwood boulevard, Evanston, Ill., after August 1.

Miss Mary C. Kling is at home from Westford normal school.

A large number of the men employed on the Zylonite job were laid off Wednesday.

The high school juniors have been very busy all day decorating the opera house for the commencement exercises this evening.

H. Burr Crandall of Boston was in town Wednesday.

All the public schools will be closed Friday for nine weeks.

The party of young people which went to Savoy Wednesday evening had an enjoyable time and returned about 2:30 o'clock this morning.

James McGrath of the college of Nicolliette, Canada, is at home for the summer.

The police station committee is anxiously awaiting the plans for the new building. Architect Rathbone of Pittsfield is preparing them and as soon as they are submitted to the committee bids will be called for advertisement.

There were no cases in district court Wednesday or today.

Rev. Father M. J. Coyne is attending commencement at Boston college, where his brother is a student.

W. B. Green returned Wednesday from a business trip to Albany.

Fred Simmons has gone to the White Mountains to spend his vacation.

Rev. Fr. Trigano is out of town on business.

Fred Graham of Albany was in town Wednesday.

The Frost meat market on Park street has been bought of Mrs. A. L. Frost by W. L. A. Cassavant of North Adams.

James Raedy is moving into the tenement over Jenks & Mooney's store.

Harris M. Richmond is in Cambridge taking the examination for entrance to Harvard college.

Miss Grace Bennett, who formerly lived here, is a guest of Miss Jennie Gurney.

A large mirror and dressing set has been received by the Renfrew Caledonian club from its lady friends.

Mrs. Rena and Archie Bowen of Bridgeport Normal school are at home for the summer vacation.

Wellman Reed and wife were called to Rowe last to see Mrs. Alma Taylor who is very ill. Saturday.

Mrs. A. Alexander of Greenfield is the guest of her son, E. R. Alexander, manager of the Bay State Clothing house.

Miss Cora E. Lombard will take her place this fall as first assistant teacher in the high school and Miss Sarah T. Allen who supplied her will go to the Fitchburg high school.

W. C. Phillips, who resides next door to the Methodist church, does good work as a painter and paper hanger. The number of his post office box is 82.

WILMINGTON.

Miss Minnie Putnam and Emma Fox have bought the millinery business of Mrs. C. M. Russell and will occupy the lower front rooms in the house of Mrs. M. K. Fox.

The Ruponda coach will commence running to and from the depot on Thursday next to convey passengers to the hotel and cottages in that vicinity.

Arthur Morris closes his lawbers with Elmer E. Wheeler on Saturday next and Fred Howe will take his place.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grimes died Saturday June 20 and was buried Monday.

Mrs. Eliza Millington is very low with inflammation of the brain.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alvin Canedy of Brattleboro passed through the town on their way to West Dover last Sunday making a short call on his brother Will Canedy.

Henry Thomas is reported to have been trespassing by fishing in the waters owned by the Forest and Stream club and will probably have to pay the penalty. The officials have taken the matter in hand.

Lewis Mansfield has a pear tree having fair sized pears on the twigs and blossoms on the same.

O. W. Ware has been in Brattleboro on business for a day or two.

William B. McClellan with his wife and her sister have returned to Wilmington from the south. His many friends here welcome him back. He has again taken town from his winter sojourn in California with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith.

BENNINGTON.

The Benningtonian is now out. It can be obtained at the Banner office.

The Walloomsac house at the Center in nearly full of guests. We suppose as usual the house will entertain several coaching parties from Williamstown and North Adams. The Center village is fast becoming a popular summer resort.

Hubert Robinson has returned to his business in the post office after a week's visit in Boston and vicinity.

Moss Streeter has

